

How to tell if tree removal could be part of an ongoing forest management regime

Likely Forest Management

Property is zoned for Agriculture

Property has Forest Management plan in place

History of forest management activities

- past timber harvesting
- site preparation
- tree planting
- control burning / fire breaks established

Performing Silvicultural practices

- burning, herbicide, precommercial thinning, tree planting

Conservation Use Valuation Assessment (CUVA) in place

Notice of Timber Harvesting Activity / PT-283T filed with local jurisdiction

Not Likely Forest Management

Property is zoned Residential or Commercial

Stumps being ground or removed

Grading or additional land clearing taking place

Trunks being hauled away in short lengths

Trees being climbed and limbed while standing or removed with assist of any aerial equipment